

Wireless Engineer @ Apple, Cork, Ireland

Job Summary

The Regulatory Compliance team is looking for a motivated, technical Wireless Engineer with excellent problem solving and communication skills. The Wireless Engineer will be responsible for supporting Product Certification for Cork, Ireland.

Key Qualifications

- Minimum 3 years in Certification or Design activities
- Knowledge of the following areas: SAR, EMC, Radiated RF testing (Cellular/Wi-Fi/BT), Conducted RF testing (Cellular/Wi-Fi/BT)
- Good technical understanding of the following: Wi-Fi, Bluetooth™, GSM/WCDMA/LTE
- Experience using test equipment : Spectrum Analysers, Power Meters
- Familiar with R&TTE Directive, ETSI/3GPP Standards

Description

Technical Support to the Product Certification Team in India.

Tracking of local Standard developments.

Produce project status reporting information Ensure internal documentation and processes are maintained and up to date

Maintenance of internal test equipment

Education

EE degree, CS degree or equivalent Engineering Degree
(Electrical/Electronic/Wireless Communications/Telecommunications)

Additional Requirements

Preferred Qualifications: Experience directly with mobile phone type products preferred

To apply

Please contact

Dermot Dwyer,

Recruiter

ddwyer@apple.com